The Rock Island Read Skirmishing for Aid to Build to the City.

Remarkable | Growth of Van Wyck

Clubs-The Ex-Mayor Stumbles into the Wrong Bedroom and Shatters a Family Altar. ST. 10.

BEATRICE, June 12,-[Correspondence of the BEE. |- The Rock Island road is the topic of greatest interest at this little hub of Gage county just now. Bonds are to be voted or tried for, and Beatrice is to have another railroad to build outlying towns and cut off her trade, when trade is the only thing that supports her. A certain element here seem to be bond-crazy, but if they were asked to explain what the town or county is to gain by this new road, they would find it difficult unless it is to bolster up their boom in real estate until they can get unloaded. The outlying precints on the proposed line are also invited to vote bonds. If they will take a wise hint, t' y will let this city to that business, as it is sure to do, and save their money. They will get the road just the same without the bonds, and as would this city, for that matter.

THERE IS SOME INTEREST IN POLITICS in this city and county. The insane fight made upon Senator Van Wyck by such noodles as Brown, of the Expres is having its fruit, and a dozen Van Wyck clubs have already been organized in the county, and more are talked of Ex-Sheriff Herron is president of the club at this place. He is an old republican wheel-horse, but at the same time a man in whose integrity every one has confidence. He believes that servility to railroad curporations is not essential to true republicanism, and fails to see wherein Senator Van Wyck has departed wherein Senator Van Wyck has departed from the principles of the party.

The fight in this county next fall, what-ever it may be called, will be simply monopoly or anti-monopoly. Brown, of the Express, as put on the brass collar and seems to glory in it; and that brigade is to have no lack of candidates. Mr. Colby, the husband of Mrs. Colby, who started to run against J. H. Broady two years ago, savs he don't care anything particular about running for senator. Well, I wouldn't if I had lost my own county by 2,000 majority. He don't say, as he might, that he is put forward by a certain snide insurance interest, whose $100,000 deposit with the state auditor is said to be made up of mortgages on town lots at valuations several hundred per cent greater than facts would justify, which expects to be greatly in need of a special attorney in the next legislature.

ANOTHER ASPIRANT
is a certain gentleman who left Iowa
under a cloud, and now wants to be vindicated by being elected senator or some-thing. He happens, strange as it may seem, to be chairman of the republican county committee. He called his com-mittee together in the spring to arrange the ratio, etc., for the convention which will be held in late summer or fall, being mindful of the early bird. I suppose. The committee in arranging its ratio gave Beatrice thirty delegates, but forgot to make any assignment of delegates to the two new precincts which were carved out of Beatriee precinct last fall by the new county board. The gentleman from Iowa has put his foot in it and may probably hear something about another deficiency at convention time. Another gentleman who is being pushed for senatorial honors in a quiet way is Mr. Baker, right-of-way and town-lot agent of the Union Pacific railroad. He must be going in as an anti-monopolist. The Union Pacific has not had much trouble heretofore in locating lots at the capital, but the friends of Senator Van Wyck in Gage county intend to have something to say about this matter, and it is doubtful whether Mr. Baker gets a right-of-way in the desired direction.

A SCANDAL IN SHORT METRE.

A gentlemanly ex-mayor, insurance agent, land speculator, man about town, husband, if not father, is out on the street once more, his face well again and wreathed in smiles, his garments as fine and jaunty as ever. He has kept his room for several weeks, seeing no one but the doctor it is said. It was a mere mistake as to the bed room. He got into the wrong one. Husband returns, gains entrance, is dissatisfied and puts a bad face on the matter—or rather on the mayor. A family altar is broken, clasped hands severed, a husband is disgraced, a wife ruined.

"Out into the wilderness,
We apart are going—
Loosed the joined hands caress,
Quenched the fond eyes glowing."
The man-about-town goes back to his chums and the ladies smile and bow to him as usual, while society laughs and forgets. But satirize as we may there is any amount of heart-break under it. I am firmly convinced that for all such cases the quick bullet is the only remedy. Remedy? There is none on earth. Two bullets were better, perhaps three. But we cannot discuss it. Nous verrons.

Brilliant as Day. The beauty of woman, is the natural and worthy admiration of the sterner sex, and to heithen it by all such legitimate means as are not inimical to health or subversive of good morals should be one aim of female existence. The skin is one of those parts upon which the most improvement can be made, and by the use of Pozzoni's 'Medicated Complexion Powder, ladies may overcome any want of that peachy pulpiness, that pearly brilliancy and velvetty smoothness which are its greatest charm. Unlike too many preparations this is perfectly harmless and can be used without the slightest fear of detection, and will never excite any of those diseases which roughen, render sollow or cause the appearance of render sollow or cause the appearance of unsightly pimples. It is used extensively by the stars of opera and drama, and no fashionable lady's tollette table is com-pletely furnished without it.
